Handa Island

Handa Island is a key visitor destination in far north-west Scotland. Each summer, nearly 100,000 seabirds breed here, including internationally important numbers of guillemots, razorbills and great skuas. These dramatic Torridonian sandstone cliffs rise from the Atlantic on the north-west coast of Handa Island, including the imposing Great Stack of Handa.

Handa Island is a nature reserve owned by Scourie Estate and managed by Scottish Wildlife Trust.

Why visit?

- ▶ Internationally important for seabirds
- ▶ Amazing sight of a live seabird colony
- ▶ Spectacular views
- ▶ Fascinating history

Best time to visit?

- ▶ April to July for breeding seabirds
- ▶ Mid-May to July for puffins

Visit for:

- ▶ Birdwatching, wildflowers, coasts, geology, scenery mammals, archaeology, uplands.

How to visit:

- ▶ Non-landing cliffs tour: Our Handa Island Stacks and seabirds tour provides the unique opportunity to view breeding seabirds perched on their narrow ledges, and the dramatic sea cliffs from below.

- ▶ Landing visit: Many of our guests also enjoy a landing visit to Handa Island. For details visit www.handa-ferry.com

The crew

Your skipper and crew will be suitably experienced, qualified and are primarily there for your safety. Our experienced guides have extensive knowledge of local folklore, geology, wildlife and natural history.

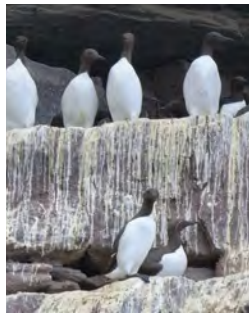

The boat

The boat you will travel in will be 'Integrity' or a similar boat. 'Integrity' is a fast, comfortable, seaworthy and safe craft for up to 12 passengers and 3 crew. Facilities include a toilet, indoor cabin, open-air rear viewing deck and ample dry storage for 1 tonne of luggage.

'Integrity' is equipped with a comprehensive suite of state-of-the-art navigational equipment for all-weather operation. For your safety, 'Integrity' is certified each year to the stringent requirements of the Maritime and Coastguard Agency.

Each trip can take up to 12 passengers.

NORTH COAST SEA TOURS

Why not try one of our other tours?

North Coast Sea Tours visit some of Scotland's most stunning and least explored coastline

Leaving from the picturesque fishing hamlet of Kylesku, we provide high-quality, guided boat tours to suit all types of adventurers. Visit our website for details of our boat adventure tours, including availability, prices and to book.

Our trips range from visits to the remote and rarely visited uninhabited islands of Sula Sgeir and North Rona to coastal tours to The Old Man of Stoer, Cape Wrath, Handa Island. Trips vary from half-day to several days' camping.

Private group booking: We can design an itinerary to suit your private group booking which for example could be to beaches and bothies accessible only by sea or long walk.

Requirements

Mobility: Passengers require to be independently mobile, with a reasonable degree of agility. Unfortunately our boat trips are not suitable for wheelchairs users.

Age: Children under 16 accompanied by an adult are welcome. Not recommended for children under the age of 10.

Dress required: Warm waterproof clothing (jacket, trousers and footwear) to enjoy views from the rear deck during the journey, which may be wet from sea spray.

Pets: Pets are not permitted.

What to bring: Your camera and binoculars will help you make the most of your memorable day. If you are joining us for a day trip you should also bring your lunch and snacks.

We can offer private charter day cruises to other destinations, including Shiant Islands, Summer Isles, Scalpay, Isle of Skye, North Rona, Sula Sgeir, Stornoway, Lewis, Harris, Gairloch, Coll, Tiree, Mull, Oban and Ullapool, as well as trips of a longer duration to St Kilda, Mingulay and beyond.
